Borrowing Guidelines

Your library membership gives you access to all library resources, including physical and digital collections.

Borrowing

Library members may borrow up to 20 physical items at any one time, from any Macquarie Regional Library branch or service point, for a period of 3 weeks.

We ask that you present your library card each time you borrow.

Due dates are printed on your due date slip or you can login to your library account online for details. If the fees on your account reach $10 your borrowing privileges will be suspended.
