About Adam Courtenay

The son of Australia's best-loved storyteller, Adam Courtenay is a Sydney-based writer and journalist. Adam has a love of Australian history and Australian stories, and is the bestselling author of The Ship That Never Was and The Ghost and the Bounty Hunter.

About the Book

Just after Christmas 1803, convict William Buckley §ed an embryonic settlement in the land of the Kulin nation (now the Port Phillip area), to take his chances in the wilderness. A few months later, the local Aboriginal people found the six-foot-tall former soldier near death.
