[0:17:39] (I): So that leads up us into Orana Pathology [Service].

TRANSCRIPTION
Simone Taylor

(S): Yes, so we could also see that moving around that the small hospitals, basically had no service and that up until we - now that we had these semi-automated instruments, Jeff and I could see that we could deliver a set of - a service to those hospitals because we could now do things very much quicker. We could do all our liver functions,
