Full transcript

In this interview Nora Clarke talks about her experiences of the 1955 flood. At the time of the flood she was a young married woman living at her family home located on Serisier Street in Dubbo, raising four young children. In the full interview, Mrs Clarke also talks about her memories of seeing Queen Elizabeth II visit Dubbo in February 1954.

Transcript Excerpt

(I) Do you remember if there had been a lot of rain in Dubbo in the days leading up to the flood?

(S): Oh, it rained and rained for days! First off, I never ever thought
