Join us at Saturday Cinema for snacks and a screening of the 90s Irish fantasy film, The Secret of Roan Inish.

Sent to live with her grandparents in a quaint coastal Irish town, 10-year-old Fiona is fascinated by the village's rich folk culture--especially the local myths about a half-human, half-seal creature known as a selkie. Fiona becomes convinced that her supposedly deceased little brother is living with the selkies, and she travels to the beautiful, enchanted island of Roan Inish, where her grandparents once lived, to confirm her suspicions.

Rated PG.

This film is also available to watch from your home with your library card on Kanopy.

Tea and coffee provided.
