Join Val Clark in conversation with local author/poet Poli Sansey. Explore her inspiring journey from Dubbo to Hydra Island, Greece, unraveling tales of travel, immigration, family, and friendship that shaped Poli's unique poetry.

When Poli Sansey first sailed to Hydra to visit family, she got more than she bargained for. Mesmerised by the beauty of this legendary island, she walked all-day-every-day, determined to soak in every shade of Aegean blue before returning to drought-stricken Dubbo. But on the day of departure, she awoke to storms and wild seas.

In this interval, where no ferries dock to offer safe passage to airports, she met the scallywag artist with whom she shared the long creative correspondence which ignited her poetry and
