Author Talk: Patsy Kemp at Coonabarabran

Back to search

Join author Patsy Kemp as she discusses her memoir The Drover's Daughter.

Drovers hold an iconic place in our Australian identity, due to the perseverance needed to transport cattle and sheep hundreds of kilometres through rural and outback areas. But what of the women and children who travelled with them?

Travelling through north east Australia as one of seven kids with two adults, six horses, four dogs and 3,000 sheep, The Drover's Daughter offers a fascinating insight into life in the outback.

Come along to meet the author, ask her questions and discover more about the book.
